

Attorney Michael L. Brungo of Maiello Brungo & Maiello, LLP, under the auspices of the Pennsylvania Bar Institute will be presenting a program on:
“Current Issues in School Law”

The seminar is offered on three dates:

Friday, May 20, 2005	Mechanicsburg, PA	PBI Conference Center
Thursday, May 26, 2005	Pittsburgh, PA	The Conference Center at Mellon
Friday, June 3, 2005	Philadelphia, PA	CLE Conference Center

This practical forum is designed for Pennsylvania municipal and school attorneys; lawyers who advise school staff; and parents and educators who need to keep on top of the latest in school law. In addition to the latest case law, the presenters will address:

- School finance – Should districts opt in to Act 72?
- Military leave for faculty
- School construction, bidding requirements and construction litigation
- Employment and discipline issues
- Teacher tenure and negotiations
- Investigating student and parental complaints about teachers
- Discrimination and sexual harassment
- New amendments to IDEA
 - Special education
 - Student discipline

In addition to Mr. Brungo, presenters include:

Lilian A. Akin, Esq., Law Office of Lilian A. Akin, Esq.

A. Martin Herring, Esq., Herring & Herring

Charles L. Herring, Esq., Herring & Herring

Michael A. O’Rorke, Esq., Maiello Brungo & Maiello

Todd Park, Esq., PA State Education Association

Julie M. Pfeiffer, Esq. Maiello Brungo & Maiello

Dave Raves, Esq., Maiello Brungo & Maiello

Leonard Rieser, Esq., Education Law Center

Register online at www.pbi.org or at 1-800-247-4724.

* * *