

MAIELLO BRUNGO & MAIELLO, LLP
ATTORNEYS AT LAW

Jennifer Cerce of Maiello, Brungo & Maiello, LLP, Selected to Participate in Allegheny Bar Association, Young Lawyer's Division Bar Leadership Initiative Program

November 10, 2003

Jennifer L. Cerce, an associate of the law firm of Maiello, Brungo & Maiello, LLP, has been selected to participate in the Allegheny County Bar Association, Young Lawyer's Division Bar Leadership Initiative Program. This training will prepare Ms. Cerce to take a leadership role in the Bar Association and the legal community and will assist her in advocating positive changes in the profession.

Ms. Cerce's practice at MB&M focuses primarily in the areas of real estate taxation, business and general civil litigation. She represents various school districts in Allegheny County at both the Board of Property Assessment, Appeals, Review and the Court of Common Pleas Board of Viewers, where she has successfully presented and defended tax assessment appeal actions. In the areas of business and general civil litigation, Ms. Cerce handles construction and school law matters and is responsible for other business litigation matters.

Ms. Cerce earned a bachelor's degree from Indiana University of Pennsylvania in 1993 and graduated summa cum laude. She earned her law degree from the University of Pittsburgh School of Law in 1997. She is a member of the Allegheny County Bar Association and the Pennsylvania Bar Association.

Maiello, Brungo & Maiello, LLP, is a multi-practice law firm based in Pittsburgh. The firm provides legal services in the areas of school and municipal law, litigation, banking and finance, labor and employment, real estate and construction.