

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact*
Michele Pelusi
412-242-4400
mp@mbm-law.net
* Prorok image available

John H. Prorok named Partner with Maiello, Brungo & Maiello, LLP

PITTSBURGH – March 15, 2007 – John H. Prorok, Esquire, has been named a Partner with Maiello, Brungo & Maiello, LLP, Attorneys at Law.

Mr. Prorok represents corporate clients including regional and national banks, real estate development companies, and manufacturing companies. He joined the Maiello, Brungo & Maiello law firm as an Associate in 1997 and advanced to Principal in 2004. As a veteran attorney with MB&M, Mr. Prorok practices in the areas of real estate law, corporate law, and business law.

Mr. Prorok frequently counsels clients in the following areas: structuring of new entities, merger, acquisition and disposition of businesses; shareholder and operating agreements; and employment contracts. He has participated in various aspects of commercial real estate transactions, including development and construction loans, and the acquisition, sale and leasing of office and retail properties. He is licensed to practice in both Pennsylvania and Massachusetts.

A graduate of Suffolk Law School in Boston and Colby College in Maine, Attorney Prorok resides in Greensburg with his wife Renee and step-daughter Julia.

Maiello Brungo & Maiello, LLP, is a respected Pittsburgh-region law firm committed to all aspects of Business, Construction, Real Estate, Labor & Employment, Banking & Finance, School & Municipal law, and Litigation. The firm's many long-standing clients are an acknowledgment of its emphasis on integrity and performance. MB&M attorneys are licensed in Pennsylvania, as well as several other states, and serve clients through their offices in Pittsburgh and the North Hills. For more, visit www.mbm-law.net.

###