Julie Pfeiffer of Maiello, Brungo & Maiello, LLP, Elected to Penn Hills Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors

February 24, 2003

Julie Pfeiffer, an associate of the law firm of Maiello, Brungo & Maiello, LLP, was recently elected to the Board of Directors of the Penn Hills Chamber of Commerce. As a member of the outreach committee, Ms. Pfeiffer will work with other committee members to increase business involvement in the Penn Hills community, recruit new members to the chamber and bring new business to the Penn Hills area.

Ms. Pfeiffer's practice at MB&M focuses primarily in the areas of school law, labor and personnel, and employment litigation. She represents school districts and many public entities on various issues including civil rights, discrimination claims and special education. Her past experience includes work with unfair labor practice charges and arbitrating contract interpretation and disciplinary disputes.

Ms. Pfeiffer earned a bachelor's degree from Ohio State University in 1992 and graduated cum laude from Capital University School of Law in 1998. She is a member of the Allegheny County Bar Association and the Pennsylvania School Board Association Solicitors Section.

The Penn Hills Chamber of Commerce is a partnership comprised of professionals volunteering their services to aid in the enhancement of economic, civic and educational conditions. Their mission involves promoting the interests of the business community and ultimately improving the quality of life for Penn Hills residents.

Maiello, Brungo & Maiello, LLP, is a multi-practice law firm based in Pittsburgh. The firm provides legal services in the areas of school and municipal law, litigation, banking and finance, labor and employment, real estate and construction.
