Penn-Trafford School District unanimously appoints Maiello Brungo & Maiello LLP as new Solicitor

May 6, 2008 – Maiello Brungo & Maiello LLP was unanimously approved as the new Solicitor of Penn-Trafford School District on Monday, May 5, 2008. The Public Sector Law Team, comprised of Alfred C. Maiello (Partner), Michael L. Brungo (Partner), Falco A. Muscante and R. Russell Lucas, Jr., is the current Solicitor for several School Districts including Norwin, North Allegheny, Uniontown and more.

The Public Sector Law Team is accomplished in School & Municipal Law matters and currently serves Pennsylvania school districts and municipalities in all facets of legal concerns. The firm represents school districts, townships, boroughs and municipal authorities in Western Pennsylvania, either as Solicitor or Special Counsel.

In an on-going effort to assist their clients in avoiding legal problems and costly litigation, they offer training to their school district clients to keep them up-to-date on the latest legal decisions affecting school district management. For their municipal clients, they provide counsel on issues ranging from labor concerns to sewer service management and construction projects.
