EMPLOYEE BEHAVIOR

Improving or ruining your bottom line?

Attention! Business Managers, Owners and Executives

The actions of your employees can create company liability, drain valuable budget and generate unproductive habits. Don't let this happen to you.

- What are the consequences of improper use of e-mail and the internet by employees?
- How can you protect your business from improper disclosures or use of confidential information?
- When is your company legally responsible for employee actions not within their scope of duties?
- And more. . .

Attend this seminar and become eligible for a no-cost 30 minute consultation with an MB&M attorney.
